high, but it amounted to hopes only, for Rapp struck out and Revelle rolled from Booe to Kellher.

Exekiel gave Pritchard a life in the Goober second period by throwing over the top of Dobson's head allowing the pitcher-fielder to advance an extra hag on what should have been an extra secrifice, but with thanks be it recorded, Hannifan struck out, and Mace mever had a chance when he hit to Martin, who fielded cleanly and caught the catcher miles from the bag.

What might have been turned into a run was nipped in the bud for the Coits in the third by a pretty double Dobson was hit by Hannifan.

Wallace was at bat, and the Goober infield, waiting for the sacrifice tapplayed in. Wallace tried the outguessing game, and his intentions were good. He hit to deep centre, and Dobson was off, so far off that when Stein caught the ball he couldn't get back to the bag in time, and both were out. McCabe hit a pop to Hannifan, and that was all.

Stein walked in the home team's half.
